Dear Barb,
Two more days and we're OUT!!
Hope you have a great summer and a great 4 yrs. at Augie. I'll always remember you and your crushed ice cream cones. Lots of luck always.
Love ya,
Nancy Hansen

Dear Barb —
The final moment (is not far away) now! No more metal shop or electricity shop to begin each wonderful school day. I made it through Algebra 1, 2, 3, 4 (Whew!) & at Augie I know you'll be successful!
Dear Barb, Best of luck to you in the future & the Kickin' Teahs.
Sincerely,
Joan Klawiter

Dear NUT,
"Lunching" with you this year has been, shall we say, an experience. I'll never forget all the perverted jokes told during 4A - Senior Year!

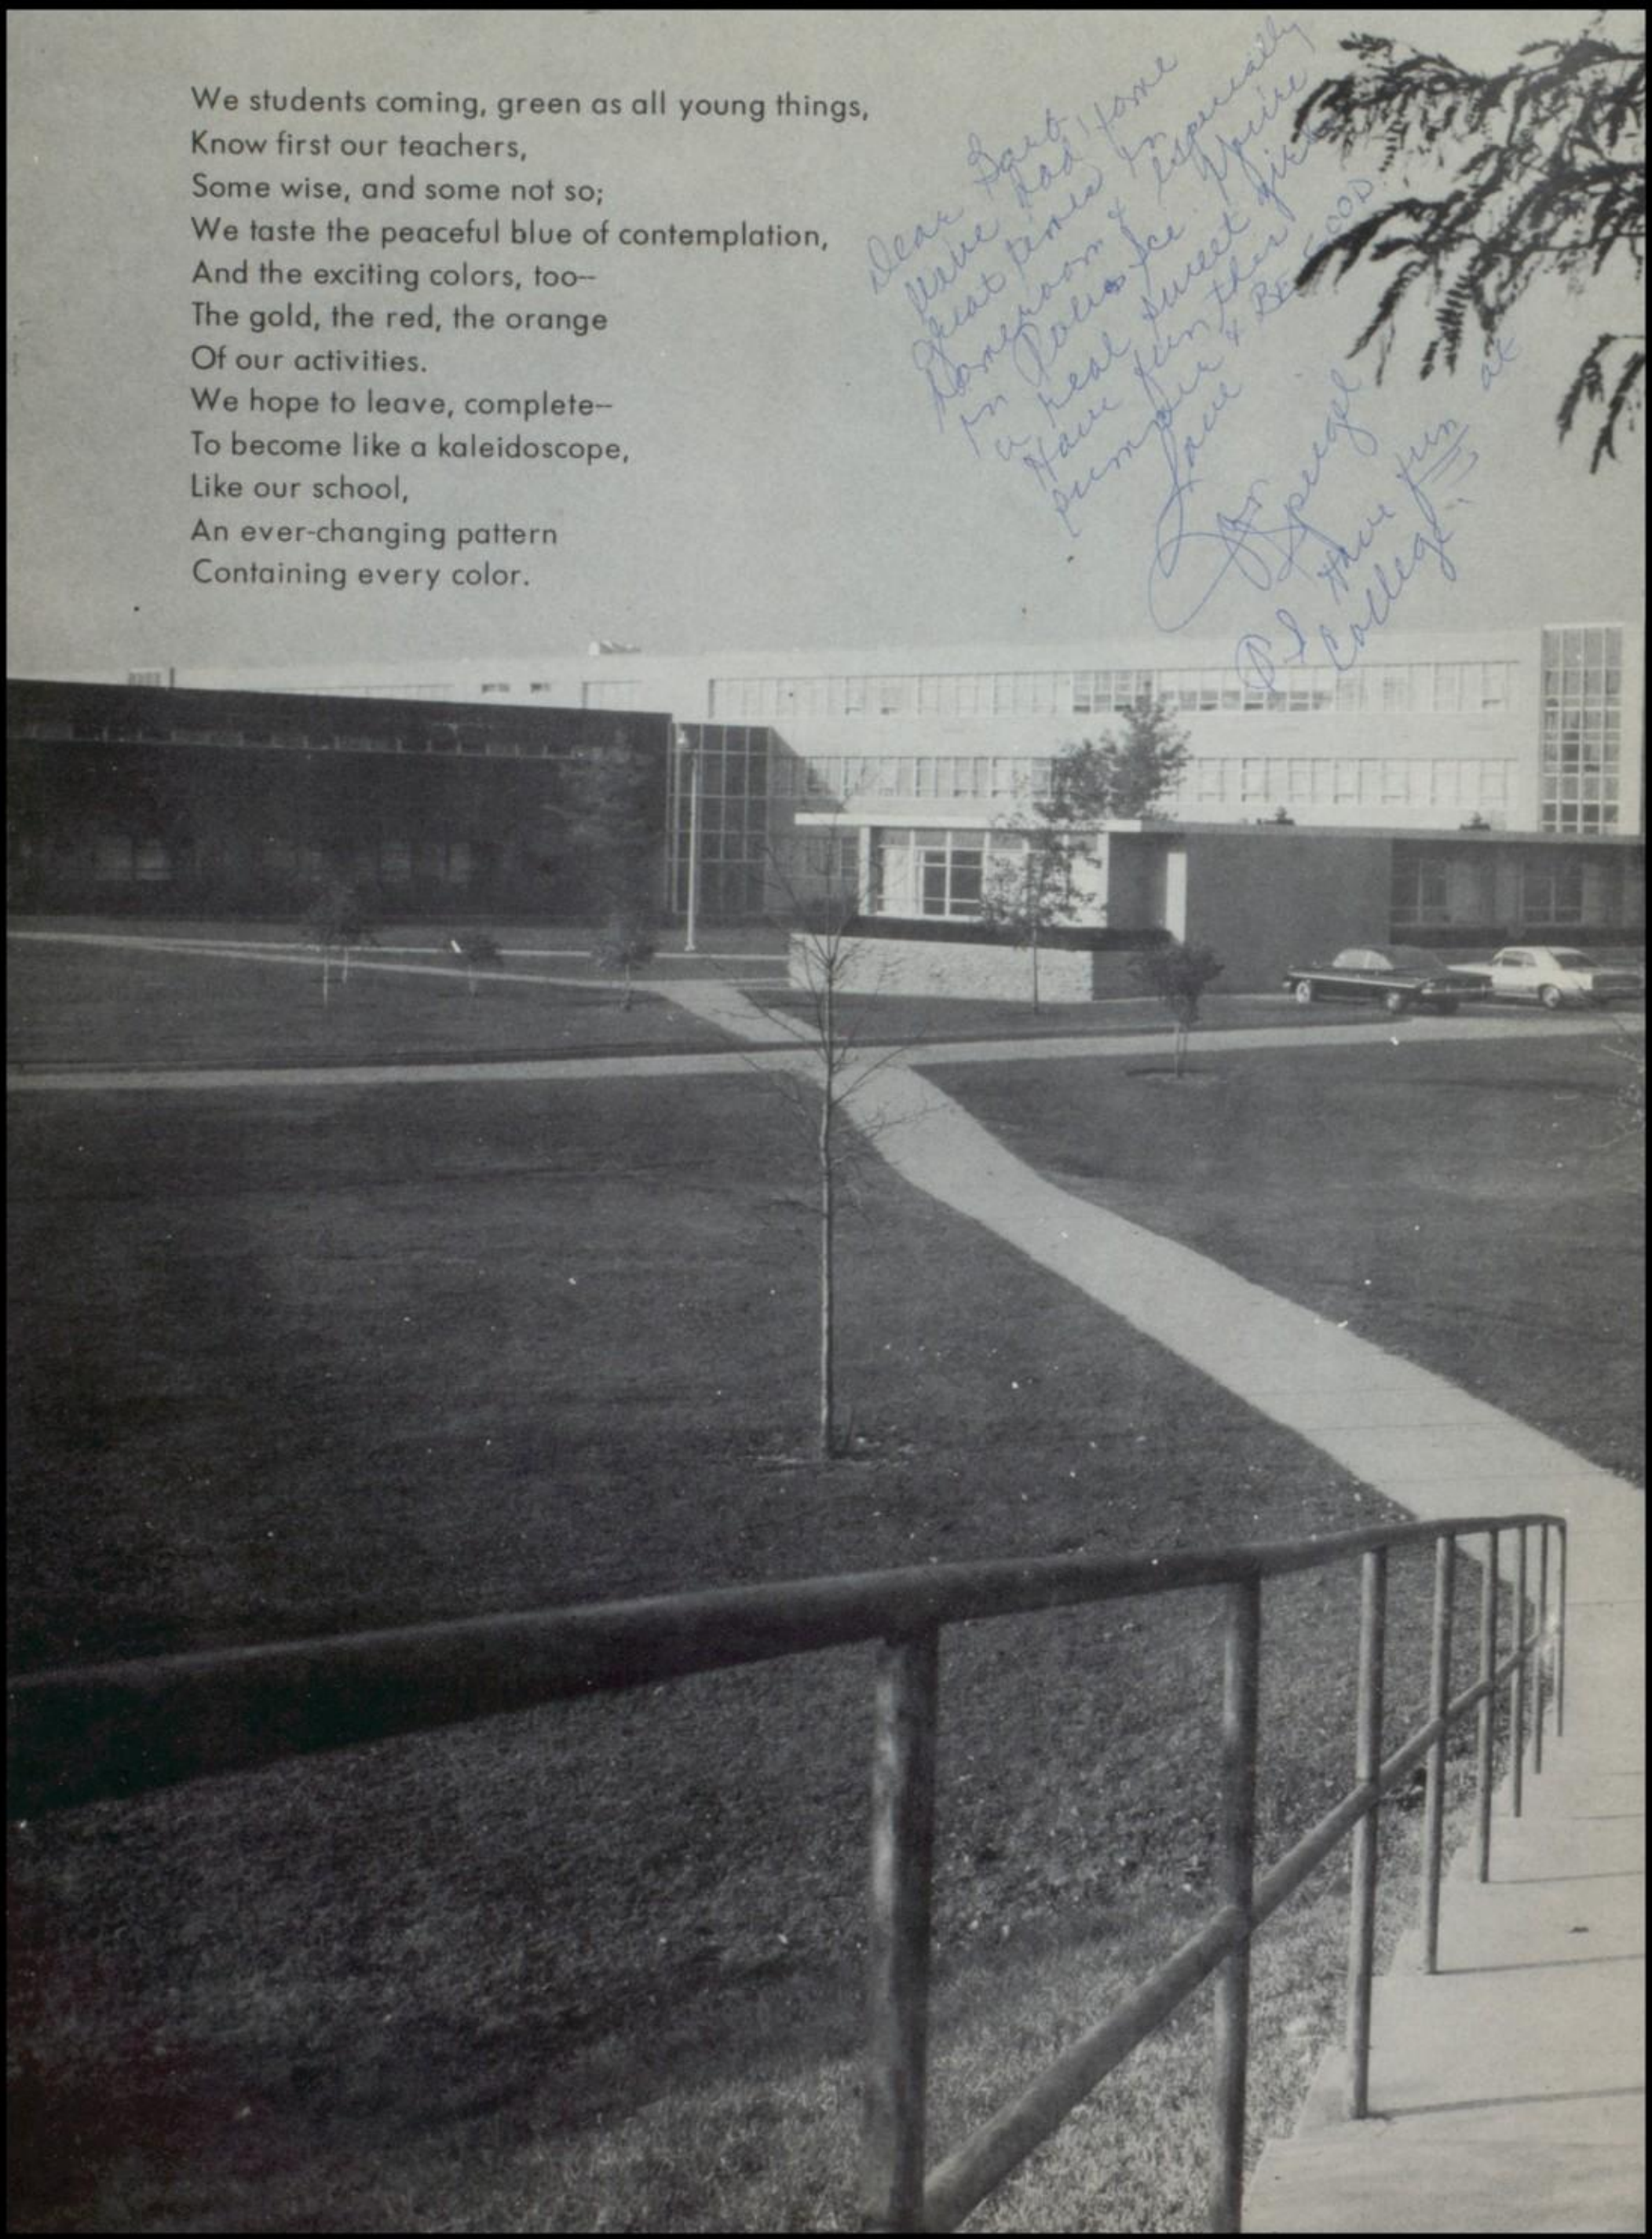
May God forgive me for forgetting to mention Augustana. Lot's of lucky wishes for you there.

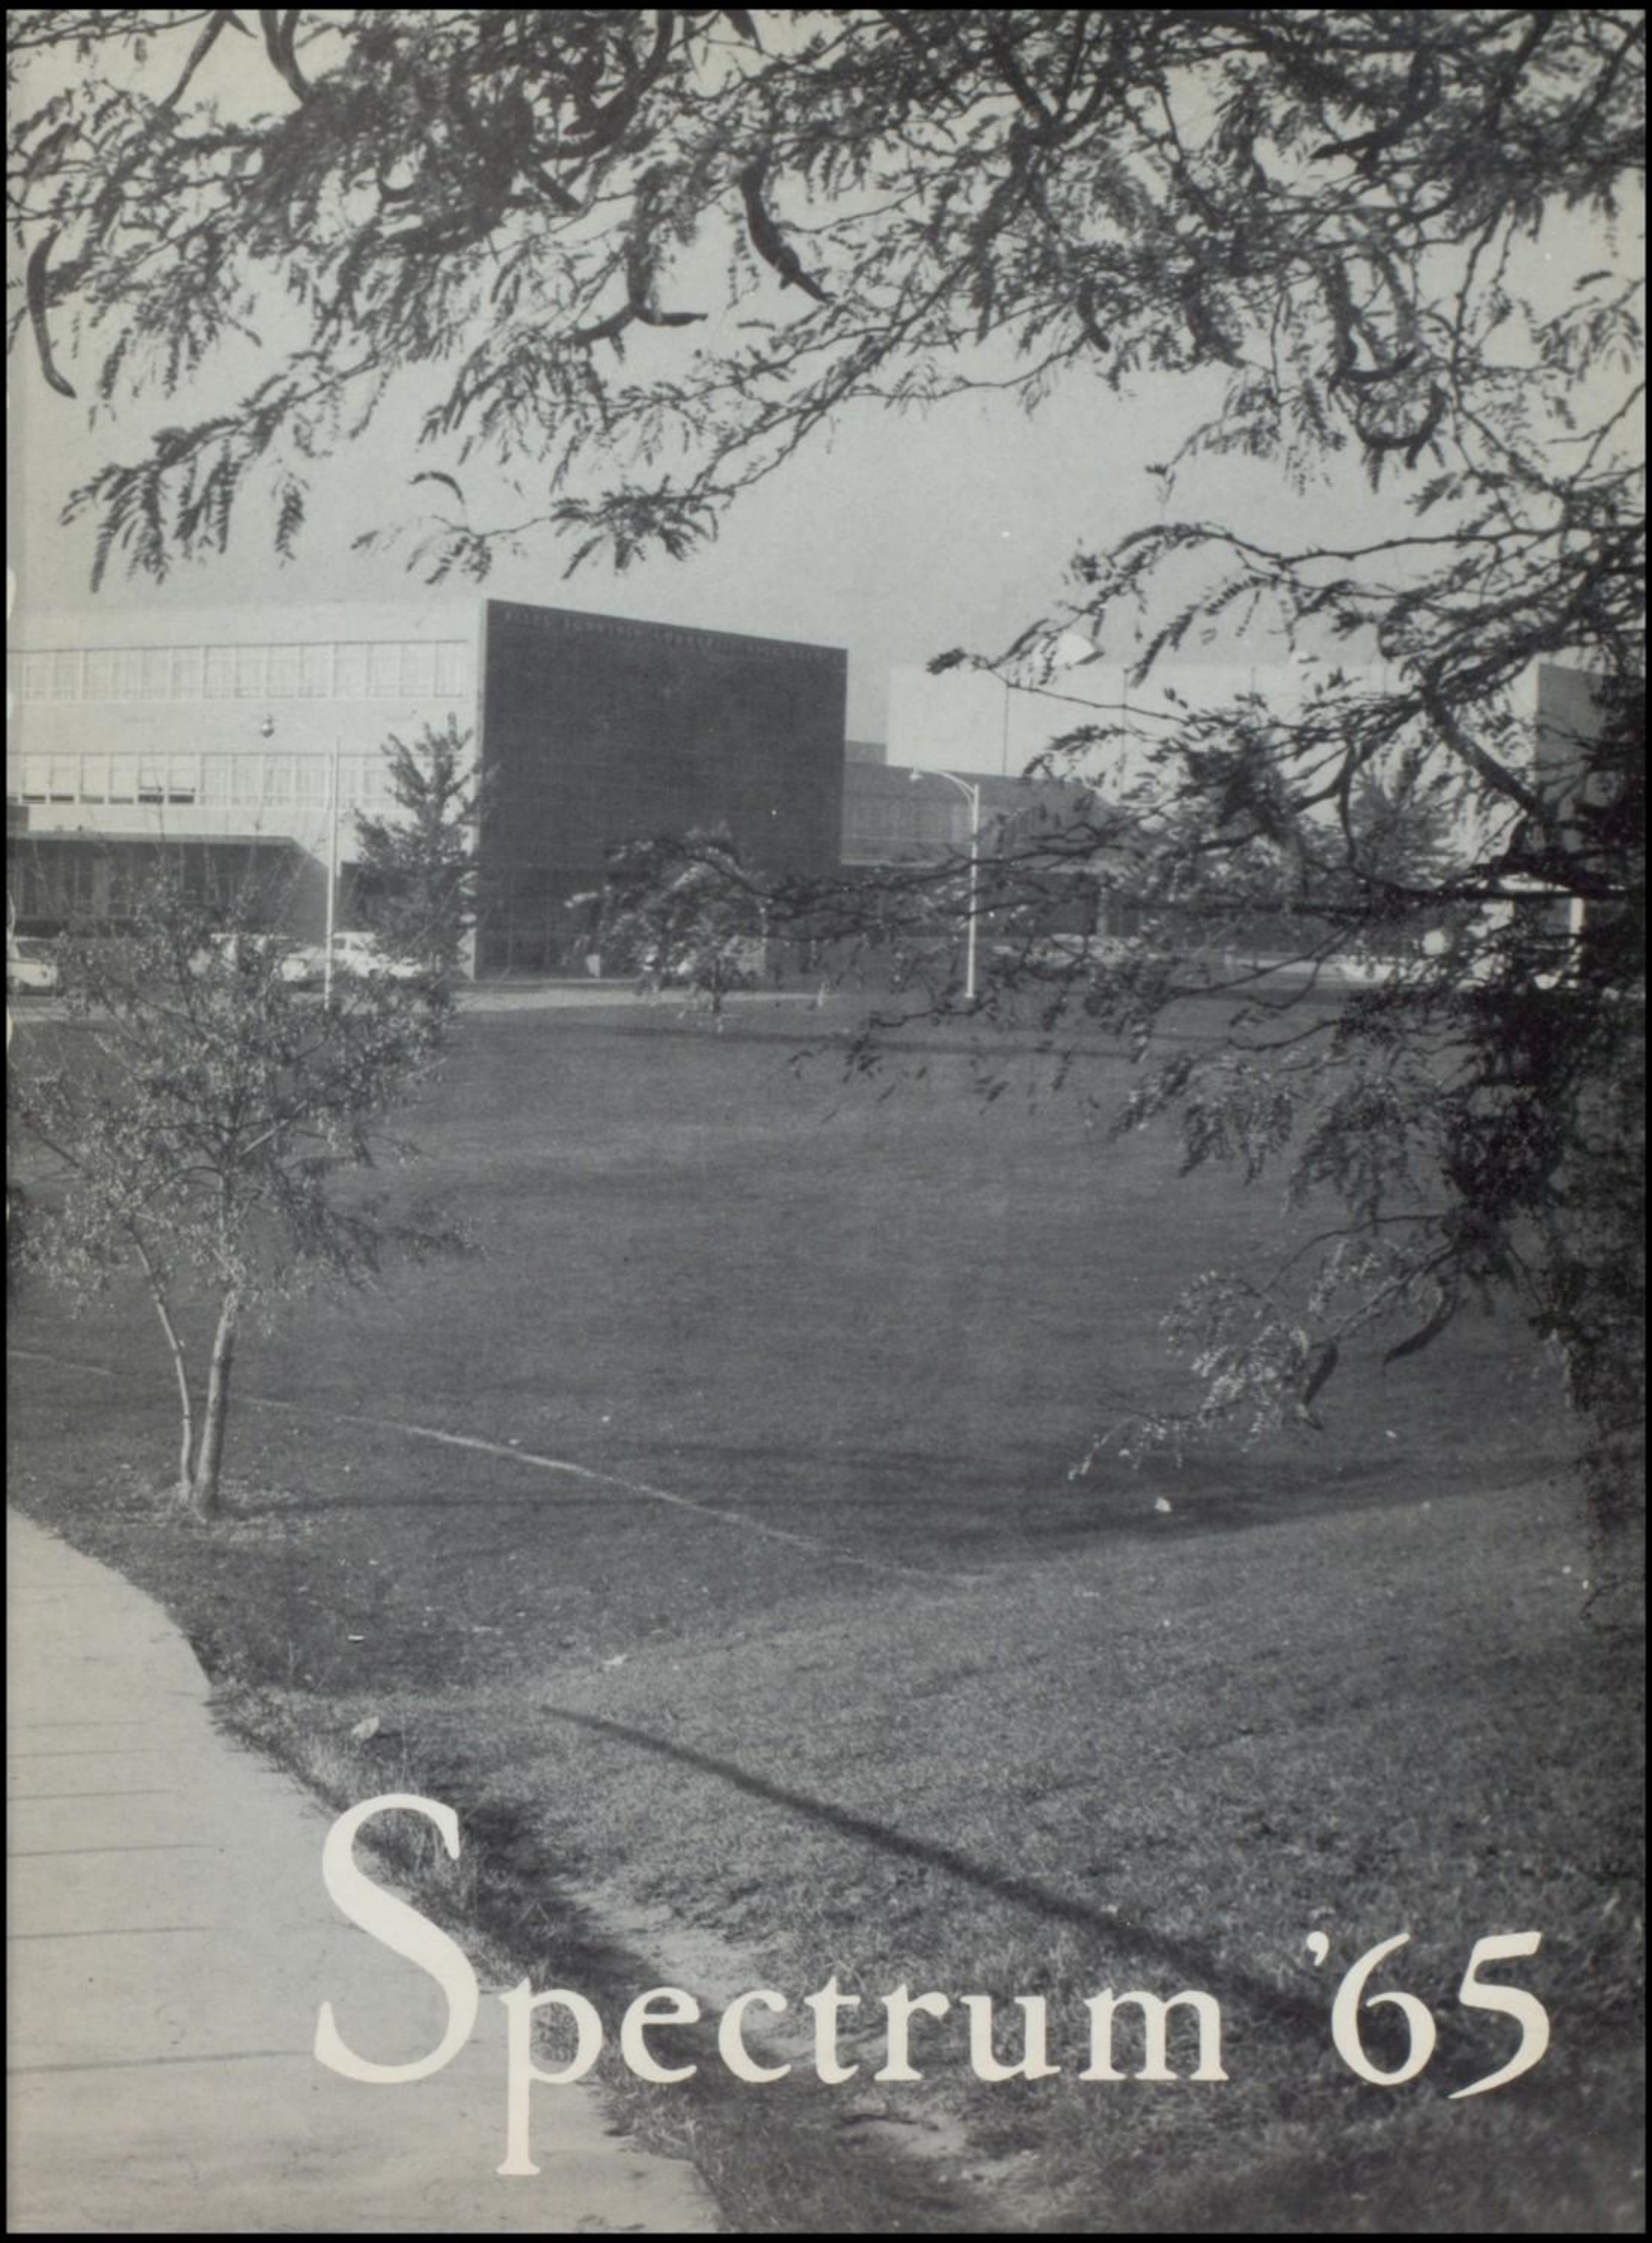
Your good buddy -

Lono HART
MA

P.S. see page #69!

We students coming, green as all young things,
Know first our teachers,
Some wise, and some not so;
We taste the peaceful blue of contemplation,
And the exciting colors, too--
The gold, the red, the orange
Of our activities.
We hope to leave, complete--
To become like a kaleidoscope,
Like our school,
An ever-changing pattern
Containing every color.





Spectrum '65

Dear Barb

Well Sive known you about three years now and we've been in a number of classes together too. During class we drove some teachers a little buggy, but who cares now that we're out.

Good luck at Augustana and with the guys there, too.

ACADEMIC

The blue of serene study,
The black of failure,
Both were ours this year.
We sought not only to know,
But to make known;
Not to accept,
But to question;
Not merely to find truth now,
But to seek it in the future.
We knew the elusiveness of concepts;
We knew the electric flash of discovery;
Our achievements were rewarded
In gold, silver, and bronze.

Leadership is a purple mantle,
Resting on the shoulders of our teachers and administrators.
A few help us to know only themselves.
Most, however, guide us to self-
understanding;
And these are the true teachers,
Those who help us to realize the royalty
In each of us.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Dear Barb,
Good luck with everything you do.
Be good and it's been fun. We had some good times in Apparatus
Best Wishes,
Judy Glennain

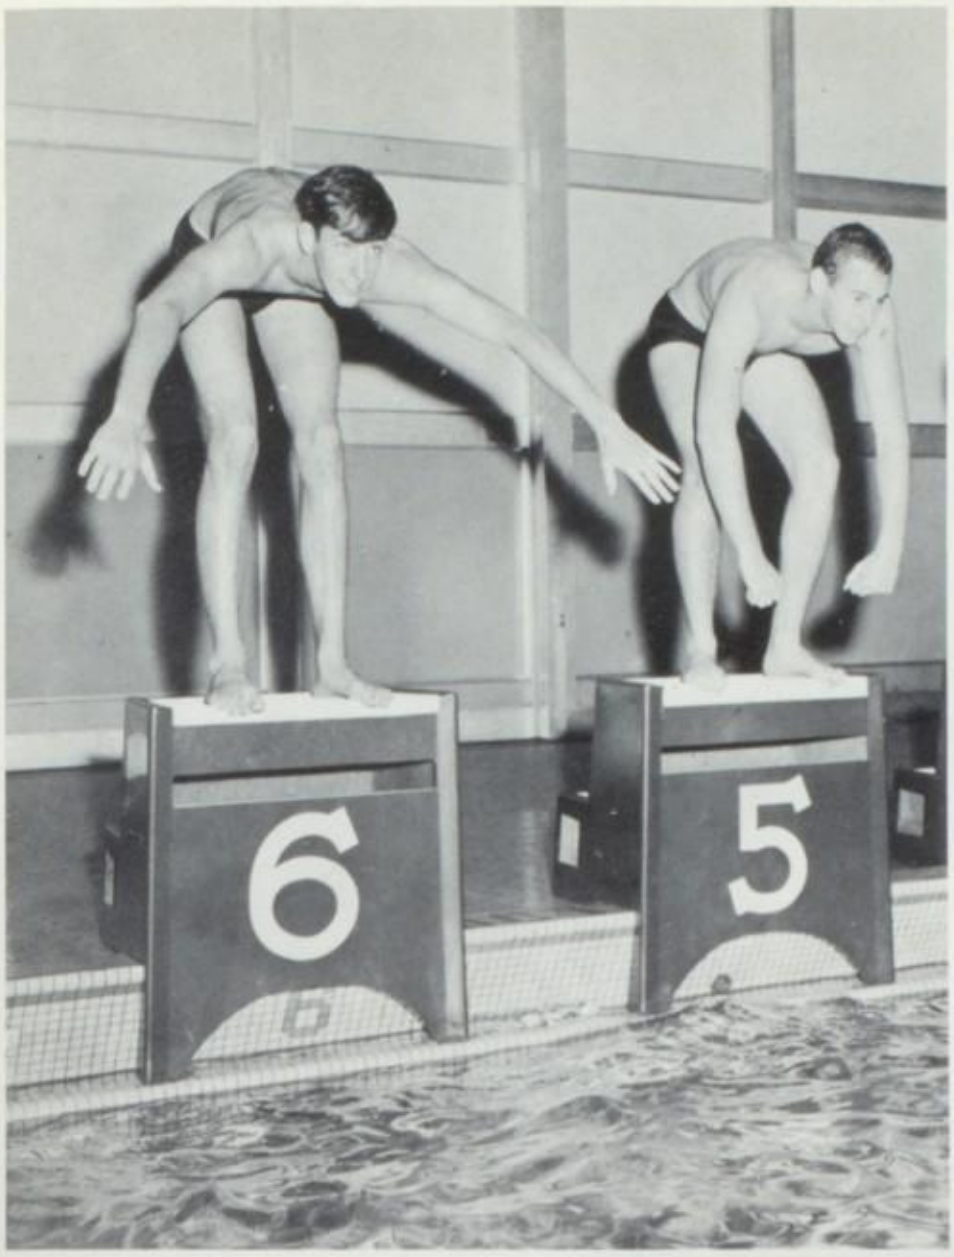
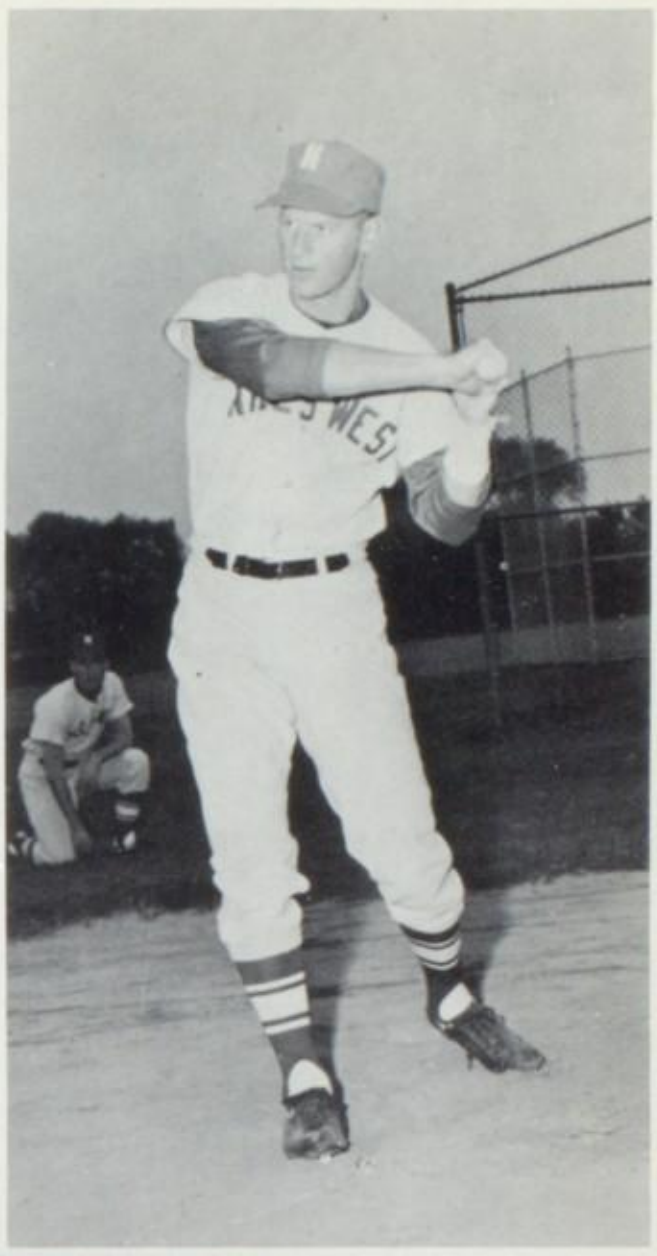
ACTIVITIES

Orange is the color of our
activities,
Pulsing with youth and life.
We do not wish
To leave the present world;
The things we do
Are not means to escape.
Though nothing is more immediate
Than a school dance,
Its sentimental orchid
Will tint our memories.
And nothing is more here-and-now
Than our student government,
But the experience it leaves us
Can dye our futures gold.

SPORTS





Our emotions were channeled
Into bursts of red-and-white sound
At pep rallies;
While some of us competed,
Others were contented
Just to watch.
But to all of us the red of action,
The green of turf,
The surface of a polished gymnasium floor,
Reflected something
Of significance to all.

ACADEMIC

This diversity of colors,
This jumble of topics,
Initiates a paradox.
For from chaos,
We shall find truth
In a rainbow of studies.
We shall find truth--
The blue and peaceful order
Of everything in place.

English

English presents the galaxy of man's poetic spirit: the words, images, insights, tones, and metaphors; English also provides the cool practicality of verbal skills. It satisfies the two shades of man's nature—the real and the ideal. Being the most colorful of all the academic studies, its lively scope includes everything from the fiery sermons of the early Calvinists to the moonlight and flowers of A Midsummer Night's Dream; from the red imagery of A Tale of Two Cities, to the study of logical thinking, with its clear black and white patterns and its infinite shades of gray.

N. Schmidt, Mr. Gragg, A. Stein

So sweet is zealous contemplation.

--Shakespeare

The essence of humour is sensibility; warm tender fellow-feeling with all forms of existence.

--Carlyle

Great literature is simply language charged with meaning to the utmost possible degree.

–Ezra Pound

Books are not absolutely dead things, but do contain a progeny of life in them to be as active as that soul whose progeny they are; nay, they do preserve as in a vial the purest efficacy and extraction of that living intellect that bred them.

–Milton

How history makes one shudder and laugh by turns!

—Walpole

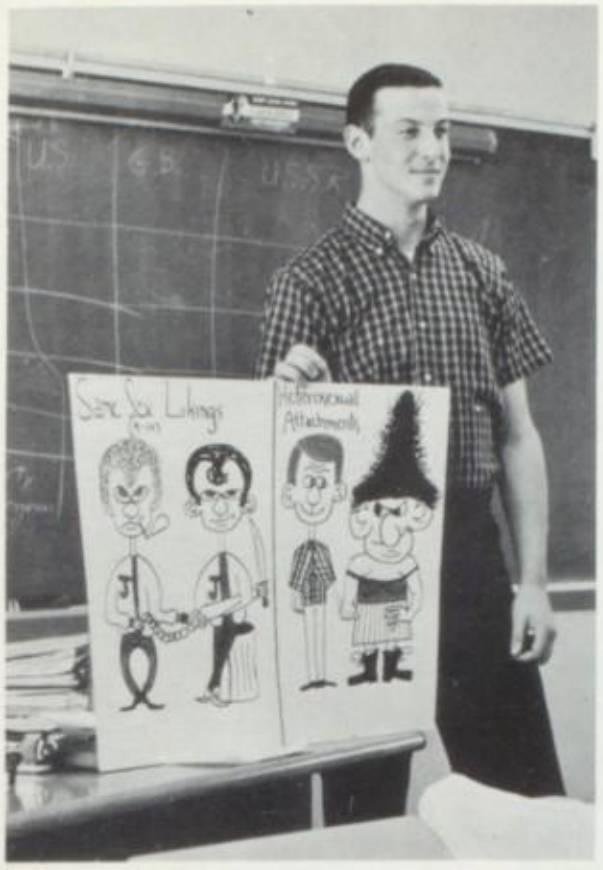
Social Studies

The pageant of social studies is a parade of red-cloaked Roman legions, tricolored French revolutionaries, gray Nazi soldiers, and frontiersmen dressed in buckskin. Not only history, but such diverse studies as economics, psychology, and sociology contribute to the student's understanding of himself and his world.

These subjects aid the student in his necessary search for identity. Nothing can be more relentlessly vital or topical, for social studies is the measure of man himself.



R. Woldman

Let us treat men and women well; treat them as if they were real; perhaps they are.

--Emerson

Parable of the Isms:

Capitalism: If you have two cows you sell one and buy a bull.
Socialism: If you have two cows you give one to your neighbor.
Communism: If you have two cows you give them to the government and the government gives you some milk.

Science

Science is like a many-hued top spinning through our lives. It contains the vital green of biology and the sulfurous yellow of chemistry, the dynamic red of physics and the blue-gray of physical science. In science are opportunities for experiences as different as black and white.

Laboratory sciences such as chemistry and biology offer students the chance to experiment and prove to themselves the existence of natural laws. Physics aims to impart a knowledge and clear understanding of the basic laws of time, space, force, and energy, and to explore the realm of abstractions. Science will continually spin its meaning and value throughout our lives, from the homeliest details of everyday life to the loftiest achievements of modern technology.

Men love to wonder, and that is the seed of our science.

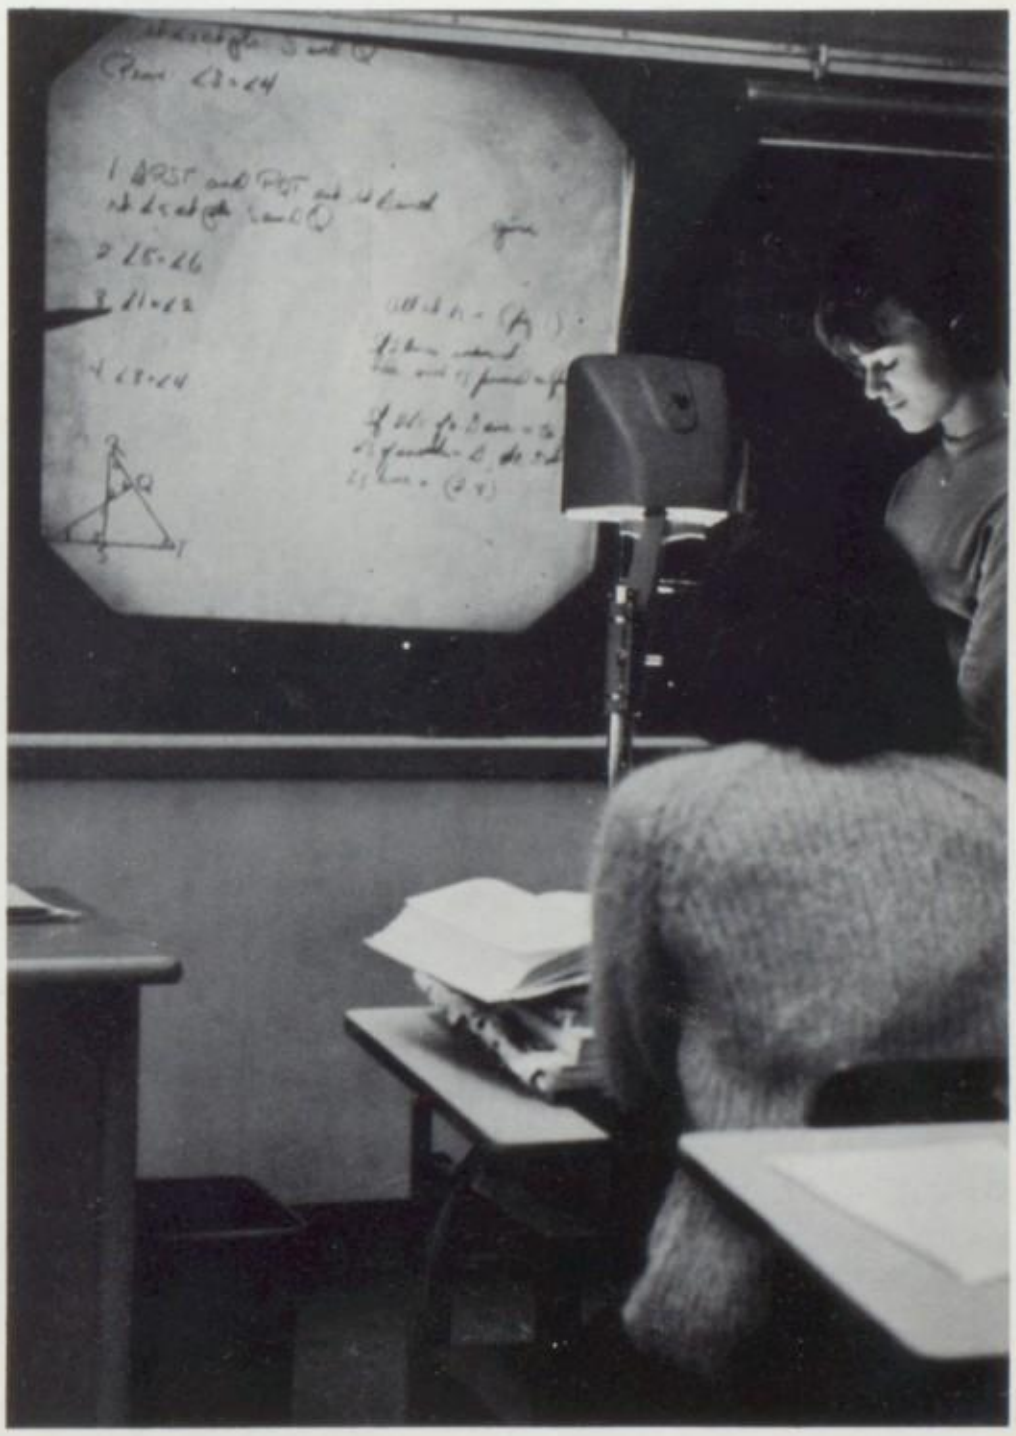
Mathematics

Angles stand out sharp and steel-gray against a variegated background of digits. The figures used in solid geometry may seem to weave and melt from red to green to blue as students struggle to unravel their mysteries, and the elaborate equations of algebra seem to equate one universe with another. Yet the creation of order from confusion is one of the greatest achievements of man; and knowledge of mathematics, with its sharply-defined formulas that are either right or wrong, pays golden dividends in terms of lucid thinking and precise judgment.

The structures of mathematics and the propositions about them are ways for the imagination to travel and the wings, or legs, or vehicles to take you where you want to go.

–Scott Buchan



J. Thomas

The universe is full of magical things, patiently waiting for our wits to grow sharper.

–Eden Phillpotts

Foreign Language

Nowhere in civilization is the colorful variety of man's nature more vividly shown than in his languages. No time in history has presented such a challenge to this power of language for peace and understanding. Here also is found the cathedral of his hope.

Latin discloses the order and interrelatedness of man's speech and writing. In French are found the sophisticated sounds of wit and intellect. Spanish is characterized by the buoyancy of vocal rhythms. Precision and force emanate from the powerful rolls of the German sound, and the Russian alphabet and tongue provide a glimpse of the intricacy of an exotic and valuable culture.

He who is ignorant of foreign languages knows not his own.

Dear Barb,

Don't ask me why I'm signing on this page - maybe because I'm giving you the business(??) and because I hate education. (No silly, that's not the reason its because it's about the only empty page!) NOAT. Anyway, I guess I can put the same thing in yours as I did in Donna's but every thing I say is sincere. We've had some good times at Retreats (picnics, puff, skits etc). Then there's been our get togethers with the girls! High times. Such as the movies (I'm plowed golfing. I'm such a golfer!! (I must've had a good gut laughing Joy Joy Joy!! (It's a pretty song). There have been good times with Umbrellas too! Thanks for the wonderful party. I had fun. (The show that night was terrific!!)

Business Education

The click and ring of typewriters plays a tune to anyone walking down the hall in the business education section of Niles. The color and vigor of this department deny the belief that "businesslike" means stark, gray, and drably efficient. Instead, such courses as typing, secretarial practice, and bookkeeping offer variety and an opportunity for future success.

When I leave take care of Web for me - I'm sure there I'll be! Be good this summer - come visit me - I'll always take ya in! (That didn't sound too good.) The ring was great - I love it!

Take care of Angie - be a good girl & write once in awhile. ok? Don't forget me.

I'll miss ya.

Love always,

Home and

Sparks fly from a welder's torch in an industrial arts class. Home economics teachers stress the importance of color-keyed clothing, flower arrangements and table settings. These courses prepare students for the future, but they also help enrich their daily lives. The girls who study home arts will eventually fulfill one of the highest callings, that of wife and homemaker. The boys who pursue the trades will soon meet society's great demand for skilled technicians and artisans. Little doubt exists that the vocational skills of industry and home are receiving increased emphasis. A modern society would fail without them.

'Tis God gives skill, but not without men's hands.

Fine Arts

As the sun separates the colors of a prism, so the ingenuity of the mind separates individual accomplishments from ordinary achievements. The results of the sun's action are reflections; the products of the mind are the fine arts, music, drama, and art.

Much as the sun is the essence of life, the fine arts are the essence of civilization, for man's history is measured by his achievements. Within the arts can be seen man's ambitions, emotions, and ideals as he views them. They are the findings of the search for beauty, perfection, and enjoyment. Like the sun, they give light and warmth to life, for without both there would be no brightness, and an absence of spirit and color. The sun and the fine arts have been the foundations upon which man has built his past civilizations, and upon which he is building those of the present.

The great artist sets down his vision of life and is silent.

Physical Education

Every period of the day, some students are diving into the blue-green water of the swimming pool. Boys dressed in red are playing basketball or performing stunts on the apparatus. Blue-clad girls are taking part in the more exciting ritual of modern dance classes. Elsewhere in the school's physical education wing, students are taking notes on first aid and the physiology of exercise.

Everyone is now realizing the importance of exercise in maintaining mental stability and alertness, and the Niles West physical education department is illuminating the fact that the good life demands a sound body and healthful activity

ADMINISTRATION

Our instructors
Raise a mirror to our own talents
And our limitations.
As we see ourselves more clearly,
So we see them, too.
If all do not display
The purple of dignity,
Yet we can learn from all,
And reach out,
And thank them for the opportunity
They offer.

Dr. Clyde Parker

Superintendent of Schools

With the recent addition of Niles North, Dr. Clyde Parker, Superintendent of Schools, has the administrative responsibility of three schools for the 1964-1965 academic year. Dr. Parker's excellent preparation includes the position of Superintendent of Schools in Washington, Indiana; Moline, Illinois; and Cedar Rapids, Iowa. His career also includes teaching courses of school administration and philosophy of education at Indiana University and Augustana College. Assisting Dr. Parker is Mr. Paul J. Houghton who directs administrative details of teacher personnel.

To some students, the Niles West main office is a place where one goes for punishment or for a "talking-to." To others, it is the center of the school's "brain trust." In reality, the Niles West administrators are a blend of these qualities.

Dr. Nicholas T. Mannos, the principal, upholds and enforces school policy. His assistants are Dr. Gilluly, who is in charge of the senior class and counseling services; Mr. Mattka, director of student activities and assistant principal in charge of juniors; Mr. Kinghorn, the newest administrator, who juggles the huge volume of school supplies and advises the sophomore class; and Mr. Schubert, the assistant principal in charge of freshmen and attendance.

Spectrum

As varied as the colors of the rainbow are the jobs the members of the Spectrum staff find themselves doing. These, perhaps, cannot be appreciated by anyone who has not worked on the yearbook. They include not only the endless tasks of sorting pictures, writing copy, and making the whole mass of photos and words into an organized unit, but providing for sales and distribution. The result of all this work is a book meant to display all the colors and aspects of school life.

The West Word serves the purpose of being the eyes, ears, and voice of Niles West. More often than not, it is the school's conscience. It is no accident that the West Word has been awarded a first place standing by Columbia University. The West Word staff is a closely knit organization which meets daily to work on the bi-weekly periodical. The West Word itself contains news of all sorts, ranging from editorials to cartoons, and topical school news to school anecdotes. There can be no doubt that the West Word is the most widely read book cover in Niles West.

Arts Club

The students of Niles West comprise a vast melting pot of tastes and ideas for the Seven Lively Arts. In order to accommodate this assortment of interests. Arts Club, was created to appeal to the off-beat as well as the high-brow and the middle-brow.

To explore the unchartered lands of the arts, Arts Club has organized safaris to symphonic concerts, jazz and folk festivals, art exhibits, the Lyric Opera, and jazz ballets. At the weekly meetings, Local natives perform, exhibiting colorful talents. In short, anything dealing with cultural activity, from Aztec philosophy to Afro-Cuban rhythms, may be found at Arts Club.

Apotheosis

In its past few literary contests, Apotheosis, the honorary Niles West writing guild, has received entries about everything from "The Physical Fitness of the American Nose" to "The Beatles and Their Adventures," and dozens of entries on the horrors of atomic war. Actually, Apotheosis offers those interested in creative writing the chance to display their talent. Two contests are held annually, one for freshmen and one for the entire student body, and the winning manuscripts are published in the Apotheosis magazine, which comes out every spring.

Student Council

The athletic pass and the school calendar are among Student Council's proudest achievements during the past year. An organization comprised of members from all four classes, this representative body attempts to serve the entire student body, by raising money to support the A.F.S. program through the Ugly Man Contest and the Candy Bar Drive, and by supervising a study hall before school. However, not all of Student Council's projects are concerned only with the Niles West students. Through the Bundles Day's Drive and the Canned Goods Drive, used clothing and canned foods were sent to needy families.

Student Union Board

Creating an atmosphere of pleasure and entertainment for the after-school hours is the job of the Niles West Student Union Board. Music for dancing

Creating an atmosphere of pleasure and entertainment for the after-school hours is the job of the Niles West Student Union Board. Music for dancing is provided and a full-length motion picture is featured at each student union evening. This year's unions have included "Hayday '65" with square dancing and the movie "Seven Brides for Seven Brother"; "West a Go-Go" with music by the Centuries and the movie "Breakfast at Tiffany's"; and the annual Christmas dance, "The Twelfth Night."

S.S.O.

The Niles West equivalent of a student police force is S.S.O., the Student Service Organization. Monitors supplied by S.S.O. watch the halls and regulate study halls. S.S.O. does a real and necessary job. Monitors are sponsored by the S.S.M. branch of the organization; S.S.S.H. provides for the study halls; and the students in S.S.D., or Special Services Division, collect passes and attendance sheets. This whole organization is overseen by the S.S.O. Executive Board, which meets daily.

Girls' Club

Girls' Club combines service and enjoyment. Yearly, the club sponsors and promotes a service project in which the whole school participates. This year the project was to send old, but still useful toys to underprivileged children at Christmas. Its members sense the feeling of compassion which develops from performing a worthy or charitable deed. For these girls, the old adage, "the pleasure is in giving, not receiving" becomes a reality.

Ushers' Club

Poise and courtesy are the main attributes of the thirty Junior and Senior girls chosen to serve as ushers at school and community functions. The girls have assisted at school plays, concerts, and meetings. Their goal is to gain the privilege of serving at such affairs as the Pioneer Women's Benefit and at a performance of Oliver at Chicago's Schubert Theatre.

Audio-Visual Education

Contributing a multitude of mechanical and much technical work to the vital art of communication between the teacher and the student are the assistants of Audio-Visual Education. As trained personnel, they operate and service numerous instructional materials for the teachers including films, records, and tapes.

Chess Club

Foresight, judgment, and a sharp sense of movement make a good chess player. Members of this club enjoy the game of chess and work together to achieve the high standards of a master.

Bridge Club

The recent formation of Bridge Club indicates the wide variety of interests among the students at Niles West. Members learn the fascination of bridge playing through experience gained at weekly meetings. These valuable techniques are essential knowledge for every member of the team when they participate in tournaments with bridge clubs from other schools. Further, the members learn early a wholesome, intellectually challenging pastime.

Latin Club

Sumus Potentes Quasi Romanio - is the motto of Latin Club. The purpose of this club is to reconstruct and relive ancient Roman culture and acquaint members with the effects of the Roman Empire on modern laws, language, and architecture. This year a new innovation has been developed. First year students were sold as slaves to second, third, and fourth year students. Their freedom was withheld until the annual banquet at the end of the year. Money used to "buy" these slaves went into the club treasury.

French Club

In addition to the academics of language, French Club sponsors activities to highlight the culture of their "second country". This year the club has seen a play performed by a touring company of French actors and has taken a field trip to view impressionistic paintings at the Art Institute. The annual banquet held at a French restaurant closes the year. All these events provide interesting and enjoyable experiences which increase the knowledge of members in French customs and attitudes.

Spanish Club

"Rojo Grande - Big Red" is one of the largest organizations of Niles West. Meetings are varied and interesting and members can expect anything from learning the Mexican Hat Dance to breaking the Piñata at the annual Christmas Party. Trips are made to see Latin American entertainment such as the Ballet Folklorico. The high point of the year comes with the Spanish Club dinner, an authentic Mexican feast. This popular activity deepens the member's appreciation of Mexican and South American culture.

Bio-Chemistry Club

Weekly meetings of Bio-Chemistry Club include lectures by members of the faculty, outside speakers from local industrial plants, and experimentation by the students. The main purpose of the club is to further interest in biology and chemistry. Possible field trips include visits to a crime lab, The Field Museum of Natural History, and a tour through a nearby research laboratory. Bio-Chemistry Club also sponsors the Harrison Award which is given to the student with the best science project research paper.

Astronomical And Aeronautics Club

Busy with many interesting projects, members of the Astronomical and Aeronautics Club further their knowledge while they enjoy themselves. One of the main projects this year consists of building a six-inch reflecting telescope which, when completed, will remain with the school as an addition to the science department. The club holds "star parties" frequently, in which members observe the wonders of the universe first-hand. This year offered a special treat--a lunar eclipse. Such activities as these encourage scientific research and stimulate interest in a field which always welcomes novices.

Future Nurses Club

The Future Nurses Club, which was inaugurated in 1956, is one of the first clubs of this type in the Cook County area. The purpose of this club is to provide a setting in which young people who are interested in nursing as a career can meet to share that interest and explore the opportunities and requirements in the field. The main objective of this club is that of assisting the student in making a reasonably certain decision as to her life's work. This objective is attained by exposing her to the nursing environment.

Club activities include service project work, films on various phases and fields of nursing, speakers in allied fields, lectures on the many levels of nursing education, and visitations to hospitals and schools of nursing. Social activities include a May tea which parents are invited to attend and a pinning ceremony where their daughters are officially enrolled in the club. The club also participates in homecoming and concession sales.

Future Teachers of America

One of the most active groups, the Niles West Chapter of Future Teachers of America, interests people in the teaching profession and gives them a head start in becoming good instructors. F.T.A. sponsors the Student Tutoring Program and the annual Christmas Party for Niles West Teachers. Members take trips to local colleges and schools of special education to appreciate better teacher's training and work. Club participants learn to identify the qualities and aptitudes related to successful teaching. Special lectures are held frequently with various teachers as guest speakers.

Radio-Electronics Club

It is common to find the members of Radio-Electronics Club studying the complicated workings of a radio or some other electronic device. Members are not satisfied merely by the sounds that a radio enables them to hear. They explore the mysterious world of electronics. After research and experimentation the members of this club put their discoveries into practical use by operating their own amateur radio station and building electronic components.

Math Club

The opportunity to investigate deeply the world of numbers is offered to mathematically inclined students by the Math Club. Although this organization meets during the entire year its main function is to prepare interested students for the annual Math Contest held in March.

Science Seminar

The purpose of Science Seminar is to acquaint these selected students of science with the objectives, methods, and interrelations of as many of the sciences as possible. Guest speakers from industries or colleges, field trips, students reporting on projects, outstanding science films, and a special library and filing system are available to seminar members. It is hoped that this supplemental education will aid students in selecting a college curriculum and in choosing a suitable career.

Speech Club

Speech makes the ready man. Thus it is the aim of the Niles West speech team to help each of its members to develop excellence in verbal communication and an efficiency in quick, logical thinking. This year each student had the choice of competing in ten events that fell into the two categories--interpretation and oratory. Special events of the club included the trip to Illinois State Normal University in Bloomington, Illinois. In its second year of interschool competition, the team was very successful, with several members winning first place trophies.

Art Council

Although Art Council is a small group, it has a select purpose: to expose the school and the community to the graphic arts. Student art shows and student paintings in the lounges and the cafeteria enhance otherwise plain surroundings. The only qualification for membership is that the students have a keen interest in art and spread this interest.

Debate

Transferring one's thoughts and ideas clearly and effectively to a formal audience is an art of difficult achievement. The Debate Club cultivates this craft among students who command talent in oratory or who desire skill in rhetoric. This organization participates in contests with other schools. These competitions provide the club's members with the experience and gradually the confidence necessary to become a really polished speaker--sometimes considered a dying art.

Thespians

Before a school production can be a success, many students must work on the numerous crews responsible for every job involved in a theatrical presentation. The members of Thespians represent these various divisions of dramatics. While some students gain their membership by performing on stage, others perform the necessary behind stage duties.

Spotlighters

Spotlighters, the "little theater" of Niles West, consists of freshman and sophomores interested in the art of the theater. During the year, Spotlighters usually present a series of brief, one act plays which provide an evening of entertainment and enjoyment. This year several Thespian members served as student directors for these plays, thereby initiating a closer affiliation between the two organizations.

Working hard before a play are Stage and Lighting Crew members Bob Berman and Barb Illian.

Stage And Lighting

Providing service for the fall and spring plays, Pow-Wow, and special assemblies, the Stage and Lighting crews have major roles in all of West's dramatic productions. Because of the special effects the crews can create, they are immensely important to the effedveness of the shows.

Music Activities

The falling snow of the Christmas program, the marching band's brightly colored uniforms, and the orchestra's polished performance in "The King and I" reflect the variety of Niles West's music department. Students skilled in vocal music begin in the Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee; from there, they advance to Choir and Vivace. Those who play instruments move from intermediate Band to Concert Band, Concert Orchestra, and Stage Band.

Music students participate in many areas of school life. They put on an annual Christmas festival and a May Concert. They contribute to everything from basketball games to Commencement.

Twirlers

Sparkling batons, white boots, and colorful pom-poms all represent the Twirlers, or majorettes of Niles West. During the fall these enthusiastic girls practice every day so that they can participate in the half-time ceremonies at all the home football games. They also appear in pep assemblies, and theirs is the privilege of leading the annual Homecoming parade.

Orchesis

Orchesis is dedicated to the art of the dance. Membership is limited, so girls who wish to join must audition. Members are selected on the basis of their ability to execute various dance techniques. The girls assemble once a week for an informal two hour practice session. Traditionally, once a year, Orchesis presents a show for the entire school. Orchesis members also participate in the spring musical and occasionally entertain for different organizations.

LAST ROW: C. Imhof, F. Moss, D. Johnapolis, Miss Schmitz (Sponsor), B. Friedman, B. Katz, (sen. SECOND ROW: J. Zucarelli, S. Shapiro (Secretary-Treasurer), J. Cooper (President), A. Tisch President), M. Rutgard. FIRST ROW: C. Sherman, M. Schatten, J. Hoffberg, S. Peterson.

G.A.A.

G.A.A. enables members to participate in any of the activities offered by the P.E. Dept. These sports include Aquasprites, Orchesis, slimnastics, inter-scholastic and intramural volleyball, badminton, basketball, tennis, and bowling. The G.A.A. service project this year was an Easter Party held for the children at Cook County Hospital. G.A.A. also sponsors the annual Turnabout dance, which is open to the entire student body.

Varsity Cheerleaders: M. Fredson, B. Muth, D. Rosga, J. Nelson, L. Adelman, J. Klaveter, M. Bass. BACK ROW: P. Zlotnick (Mascot).

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders: B. Tash, C. Starkman, B. Schieren, K. Krone, M. Cooper.

Cheerleaders

"Yea red, yea white" . . . is the enthusiastic call of the cheerleaders. Whether our team is winning or losing the cheerleader has the enormous task of keeping the spirit high and the cheers organized. Inspiring school spirit, they are constantly representing Niles West and thus proving that "West is Best". The vitality of the cheerleaders generates pep to the fans at assemblies and football and basketball games.

Frosh Cheerleaders: E. Starkman, R. Golbus (Captain), J. Rodnick, S. Sandman (Alternate), E. Kipnis.

Timers' Club

"Bang! Splash!" These are two familiar sounds to the members of Timers' Club, an all girl organization. Whenever there is a home swimming meet, these girls are found with a stopwatch in hand, timing the athletes.

Guard Club

Black suits and red trunks are the uniforms of one of the swimming organizations Niles West can be proud of. Working for no profit, the members of Guard Club give up their Saturday mornings to teach young children to swim.

'N' Club

Most boys qualifying as major "N" winners willingly go through a humiliating and laughable initiation to become a member of this honored club. "N" Club is not just an elite group of boys who proudly wear red and white letter sweaters. The club's purpose is to promote school spirit and attendance at school athletic events. The members also sponsor the "N" Club-Faculty basketball game and an all-school dance during the year.

SPECIAL EVENTS

"All that glitters is not gold,"
But to all of us,
That which glitters is exciting.
We look forward to these events--
And back on them, since they provide
Golden decorations for our year.

Homecoming

Dr. Mannos congratulates Senior Bonnie Muth on her selection as Homecoming Queen.

Sophomore Cabinet took third place in Class A competition.

Crisp weather contributed greatly to the success of the parade.

The 1964 Homecoming Court

All the excitement of fall was present at Homecoming, involving everyone in some part of the weekend's activities. One event followed another in a mad race which began with the construction of the floats and ended with the dance for some, and will always be a cherished memory for all.

Shrieks and shouts split the grey dusk Friday afternoon as the weekend began with the twilight pep rally.

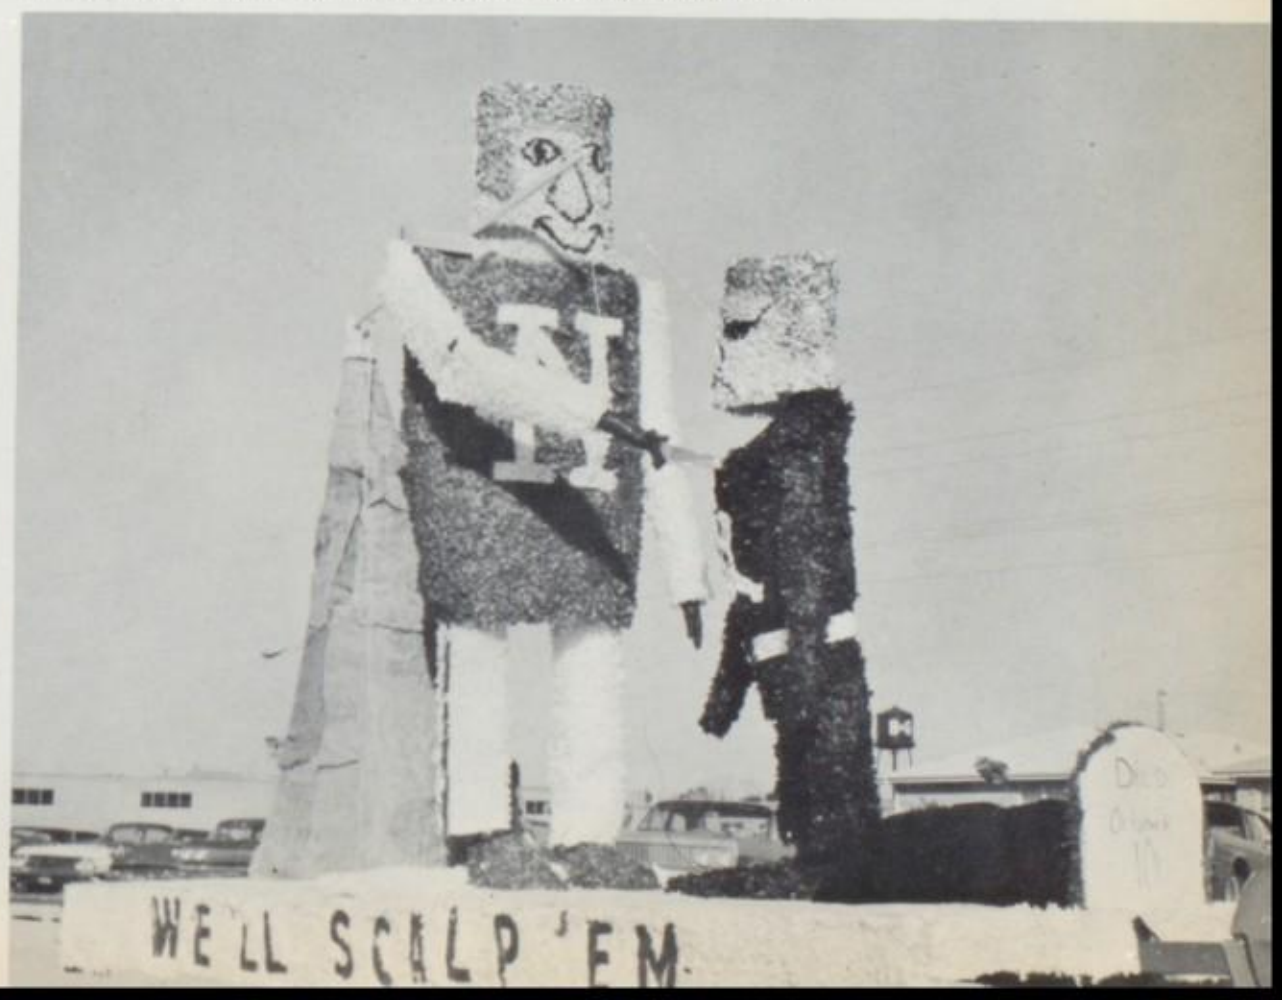
Red was the predominant color. The red of the new queen's bouquet of roses matched the red brought out in many of the floats in Saturday's parade. Red was also the color of many of the float-builder's eyes after working on their floats through the night.

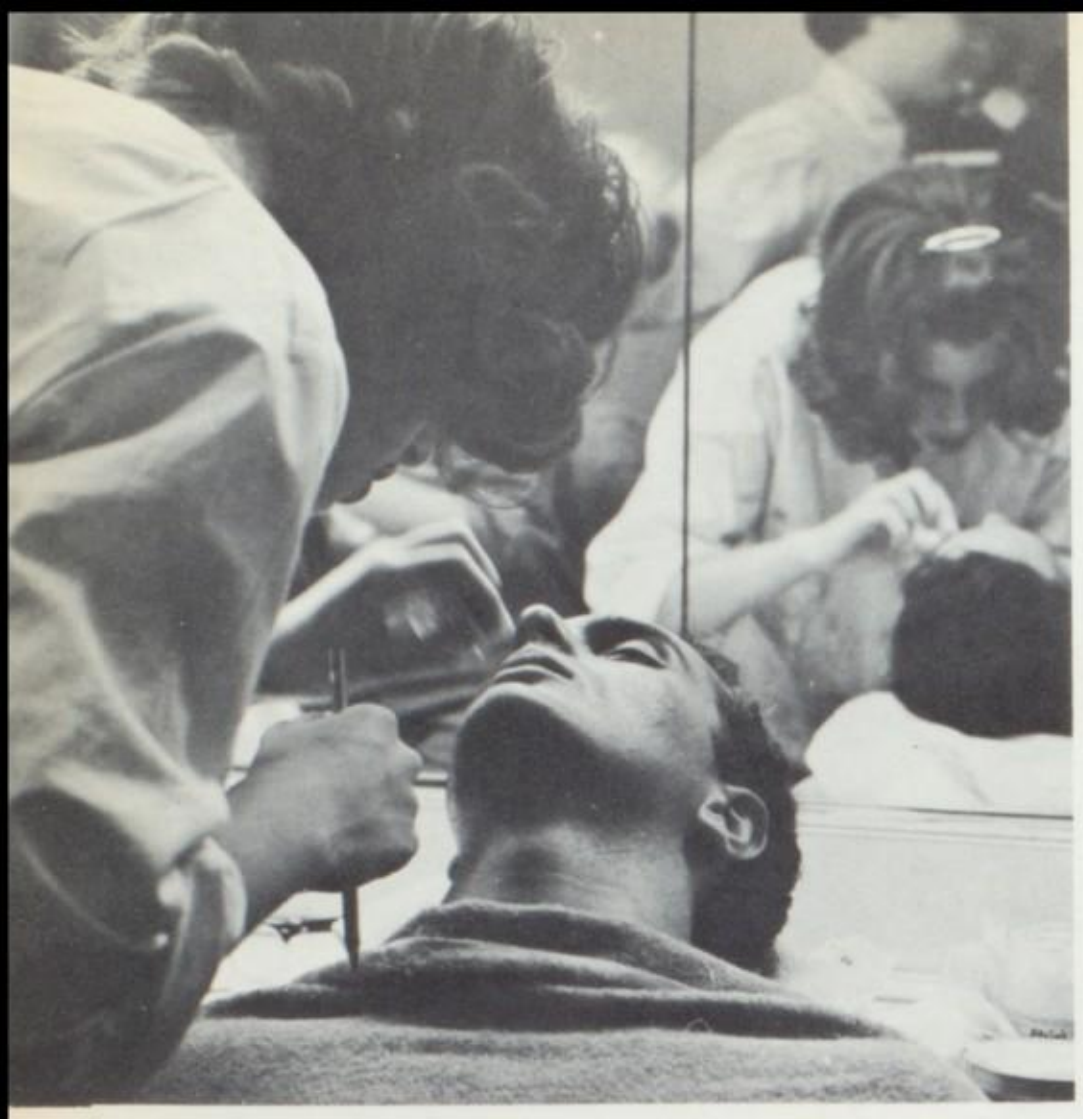
Later, at the game, our stands were filled with enthusiastic Indian fans cheering throughout the exciting game.

Slightly calmer, many students and alumni attended the dance, "Those Were the Years . . ." For many, it was the perfect end to a busy weekend.

Holly Weiner, co-director of Homecoming '64; Ted Forsberg, president of class of '63; Maareen Wolf, Student Council president of '63; Helen Perri, Homecoming Queen of '63.

Student Council's Class A float won first place in the Homecoming parade.





"I have heard of your paintings too, well enough; God has given you one face and you make yourselves another."

Anouilh

Madwoman of Chaillot

With the phrase "MAD, MAD, MAD" echoing through the halls, Niles West students were reminded of the question, "Who are the mad people, and who are sane?" The answer was found on November 13 and 14, 1964, when The Madwoman of Chaillot premiered in the auditorium. The large cast and difficult roles presented many problems to actors and directors. Becaase many characters had to be played on two levels, other difficulties were added. The characters included the Madwoman of Chaillot, who rid the world of all its evil; Gabrielle, who faced the world with wide-eyed innocence; Constance, who had a favorite pet, an imaginary dog; and Josephine, who spent many years waiting for President Wilson to come out of Versailles Palace.

"All fifty-franc notes are mine, baron."

L. Hoch, M. Moss, M. Harris, L. Binstein, S. Wishoff, L. Conrad, L. Gold.

"I'm new on the job. I can't afford to make any mistakes."

"Once you go down, there's no coming up. You just keep going down and around . . . down and around .

C. Honnet, S. Shiner

"Don we now our gay apparel."
D. Ryan, S. Scobee

". . . a partridge in a pear tree."
W. Beckwr, B. Peterson.

S. Ovitsky, M. Fried
"Oh Tannenbaum!"

"Despite it all, I still believe people are good at heart."

Christmas Activities

Holiday spirit filled the halls of Niles West this winter. It was reflected in the various club-sponsored charity projects, ranging from Latin Club's sale of UNICEF greeting cards to the Girls' Club toy drive for a Chicago settlement house. Music was in the air, too. The annual Christmas festival and assembly featured the choir, orchestra, girls' glee, band, and mixed chorus, and the assembly was highlighted by faculty member Miss Eileen Zelznick's reading from The Diary of Anne Frank.

The holiday season was climaxed by this year's Christmas dance, "Twelfth Night." Sponsored by the Student Union Board, and featuring elaborate decorations and a visit from "Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus," the dance added its warm glow and pleasant memories to the mid-winter holidays.

Lettermen Concert

On February 10 the three Lettermen Tony, Jim, and Bob appeared "in concert" at Niles West. A variety of songs were presented both folk songs and popular music. Two medleys, one from West Side Story and another of their own composition, were also performed.

The Lettermen were enjoyable both for their exceptional singing ability and for the humorous comments which were added.

At the end of the performance, the warmly receptive audience insisted on an encore, which grew into an additional half-hour of entertainment.

Tony sets the mood.

On the lighter side.

"Michael, row the boat ashore."

Janice Brooks won 1st place in solo division competition.

Pow-Wow '65

"Keep It Under Your Hat" was the theme of Pow Wow '65. Student-planned, produced, directed, written, choreographed, and orchestrated, Pow Wow was a Niles West first. Never before has such a tremendous project been undertaken by our students--and never before has a talent show been such a success.

"The Brotherhood of Man" and the benefits of a democratic society were discovered by two Russian spies as they toured Niles Township. The various acts, examples of American life as seen by the spies, were original and diversified. Ranging from West's masculine version of the "Leningrub Ballet" to a sample of the new Liverpool sound, they thoroughly entertained an audience of varied preferences.

Besides the central theme of our fourth annual talent show, another innovation was introduced. Serving as a tribute to the single winning acts of each category, now and in the future, the names of these performers will be inscribed on a gold plaque.

SENIORS

The senior combines all colors.
He is like a prism, reflecting and retaining
A mixture of the hues in true proportion.
Hopefully, he shall carry with him
The colors of his school's spectrum
Wherever he may go.
And he will leave to future classes
Part of his own color,
Some of his uniqueness.

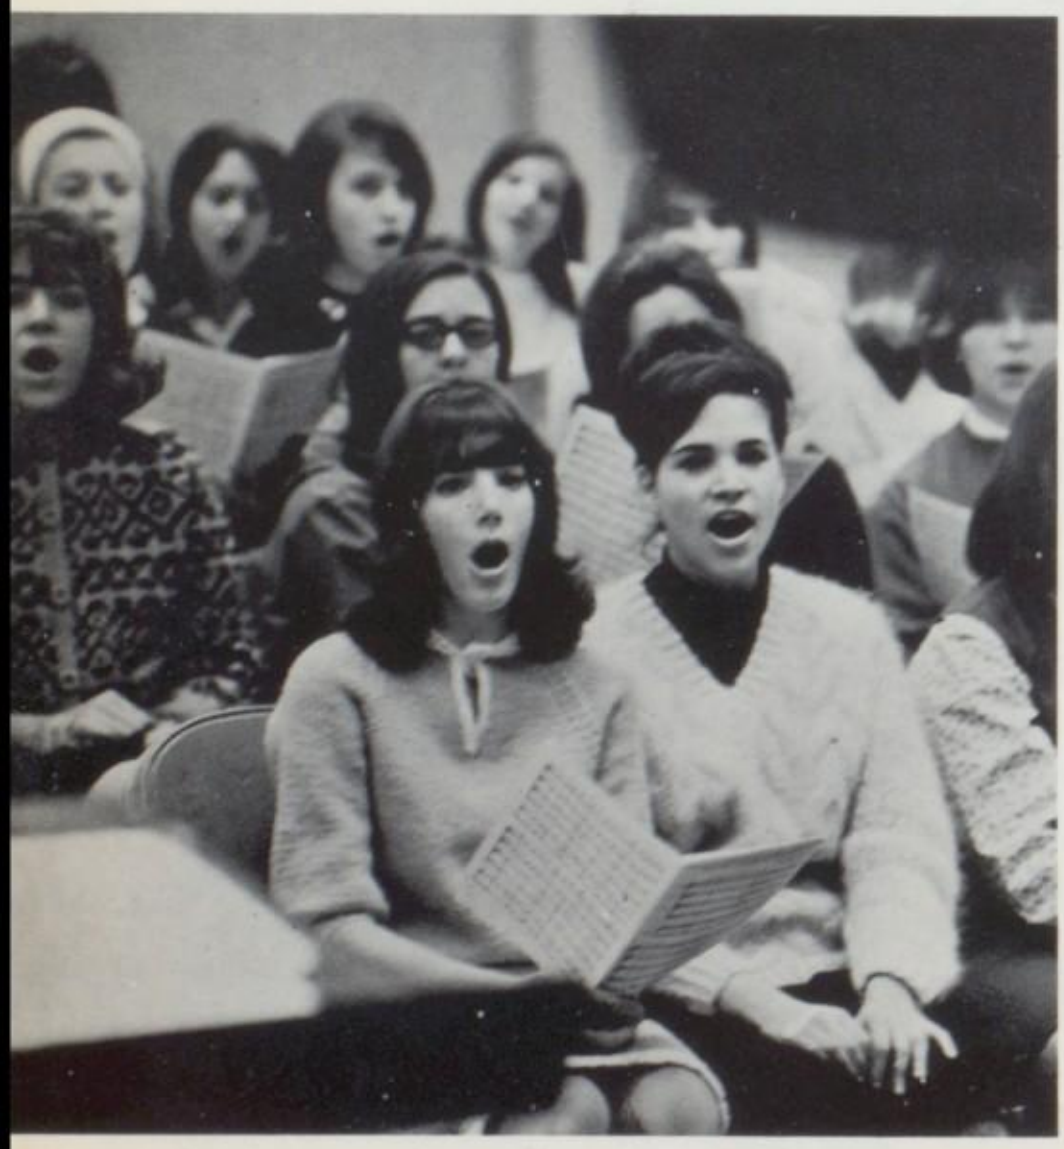
. . . ALUMS

SENIORS,

WE . . .

. . . ARE GROWING



UP

UNDERCLASSMEN

Green
Signals youth, enthusiasm, life.
As no color is separate from the spectrum,
Green blends and mingles,
Each level joins with the others
To make and define our school.
The underclassmen learn to work together,
And find that green also indicates Growth.

JUNIOR CABINET

LAST ROW: E. Servillo, R. Rivetto, M. Sherwood, M. Klein, D. Spitz, J. Stengal, M. Rooney. THIRD ROW: P. Angelino, M. Isaccz, A. Kendell, M. Starkman, B. Frazin, S. Glick, J. Greenberg, S. Lewis. JUNIORS

The colors of the spectrum are diagonally reaching out to the third-year class, thus giving the juniors an emerging status. Not yet seniors, but certainly removed from the two underclasses, juniors have a deepening sense of pride in our school. Certain responsibilities are presented with the title "junior", among which are settting an example for the freshmen and sophomores and preparing for their role as "seniors". For example, Junior Cabinet sponsors the Junior-Senior Prom, the most important social event of the year. Juniors will be soon responsible for the direct continuance of the spectrum colors — bright and varied.

SOPHOMORES

The spectrum touches the sophomores invitingly yet obliquely. The second high school year can be so much more enriching than the first. The sophomore feels as if he really belongs to the school and becomes an active participant in student activities. He becomes a sports enthusiast and strives for scholastic excellence. He has developed that school spirit which is so important to his high school life. The sophomore has the exciting experience of finding his place in the sun.

FRESHMEN

The freshmen are the dawn of a new spectrum. The youngest members of our student body have just begun a new experience. They have both several years of tradition to follow and a reputation of their own to establish. The first year of high school is important to the student because it should develop study habits, school spirit, and a sense of pride and obligation to Niles West. Freshmen constitute a vital section in that they will eventually lead. Over three years time, they will give promise of bright days for the Big Red.

Varsity

This was a season of disappointment for the varsity football team. Almost every regular player including co-captains Dennis Smith, Bob Levin, and Rick Steele missed games due to injuries. A losing streak spoiled any hope that the Indians might win the Des Plaines Valley League title. Nevertheless, the team did win three games in a row. With better luck, they might have won more. As it was, the team provided color, excitement, and, most of all, representation of Big Red's keen competitive spirit.

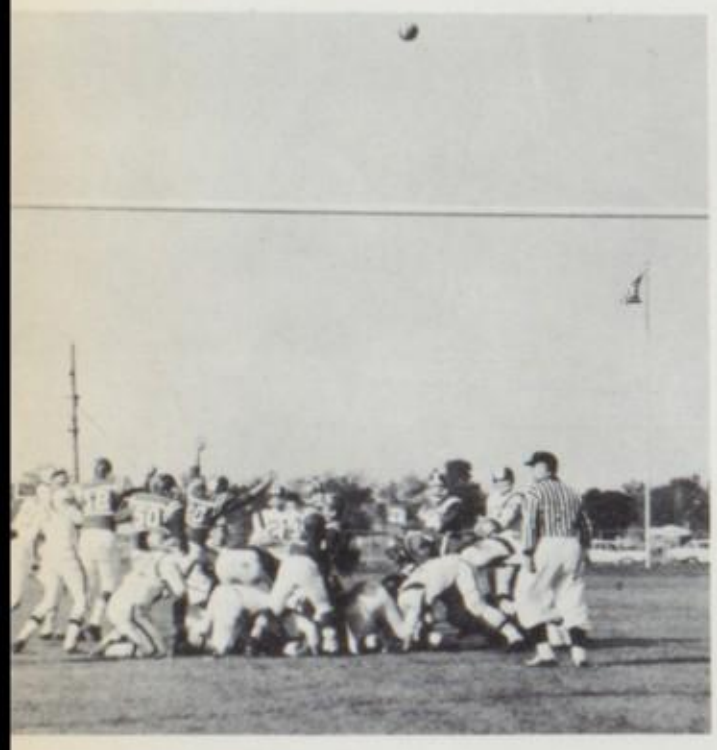
Junior Varsity

The junior varsity gridders captured third place in the Des Plaines Valley League with a record of three wins, three losses, and two ties. Their three victims were all worthy contenders: Evanston, East Leyden, and Palatine. Coach Paulsen commented that if injuries can be held down, next season the football team should win the league title.



Five extra points are the difference in the Homecoming victory over Palatine.

Sophomores

After a 38-0 rout by Maine East and an unlucky loss to Proviso West, the Sophs finally scored an 18-6 victory over East Leyden. Coached by Bill Coyer, the sophomores began the '64 season with few experienced players. After losses to Palatine, 27-6, West Leyden, 27-14, and Maine South, 27-13, the Indians finally added another victory to the slate. They defeated Morton West by the close score of 13-12. The Sophs closed the season with a 26-13 loss to Willowbrook. Yet, in spite of the losing season, soph gridders, as always, gained experience, toughness, and knowledge of the fundamentals.

Lack of depth, a common malady, hampered this year's varsity cross-country team. The harriers, led by senior Art Silverstein and junior Robert Clemen, could not manage to achieve a victory in their eleven contests. Mr. Harmon, who coaches the cross-country squad, can look forward to a better season next year, when some of the present freshmen and sophomores join the varsity. He can further stress that cross-country competition demands dedication, discipline, and strength, yet, unfortunately, little glory except among the direct participants.

Varsity

The Niles West varsity basketball team ended its season with a heartbreaking 50-48 loss to New Trier in the regional tournament finals. This defeat ended the most successful basketball season in the school's history. The team won a total of nineteen games, more than any other team from any Niles Township school has ever won. They posted a league record of ten victories and only four losses.

To no one's surprise, senior co-captains Rick Kreiter and Lloyd Gussis were chosen the most valuable players of this year's team. Between them, they hold every major Niles West basketball record. The other team starters--Mickey Brusman, David Murphy, John Timmer, and Bob Levin--were all seniors as well. Theirs was a well-balanced, well-coached unit which will be missed.

John Timmer outmanuevers two East Leyden forwards.

Lloyd Gussis pivots through Wildkit defense for a layup.

Junior Varsity

The j-v's started the hardwood season strongly, winning the majority of their first eight games. As the campaign progressed, the team sank below a winning record and eventually won six out of eighteen contests. The club found itself lacking muscle and a consistent scoring punch. Much responsibility for the success of next year's Big Red rests with these JVers, as the first six varsity cagers are graduating seniors. The great hope is that, as a unit and as individuals, these ballplayers will develop considerably, a feat that often happens with varsity responsibility.

JV-er Ron Torenko moves clear for a close-in score.

The sophomore cagers ended the season with a discouraging record of four wins and twelve losses. But they have learned the competitiveness and skill for their future playing; and after all, these are the first purposes of these teams.

The Frosh "A" team won five of their sixteen games, unfortunately losing six games by less than three baskets. It must be remembered, too, that three frosh starters were moved to sophomore competition early in the season.

Showing an especially strong start, the Frosh "B" cagers won their first eight games. Then, as often happens, their campaign began to rest heavy on the players, and five of the last six games were lost.

Swimming

This year's district meet, held at Niles West, ended a successful season for the varsity swimming team. Posting a conference record of three wins and two losses, they captured third place in the Des Plaines Valley League. League champions included Tom Widerquist, 400-yard freestyler, who set a new league record, and the 200 yard relay team. Diver Bob Wagner was third in the league and twelfth in the state finals.

The frosh-soph teams had a most successful season with an excellent record of twelve wins and three losses, taking second place in the league. The frosh team came through the season winning four meets and dropping three. The varsity wrestling squad, like the football team, was hampered by injuries during its campaign. Although they could not succeed in making theirs a winning season, the wrestlers turned in some fine individual performances. This year's Gymnastics squad was the most unexpectedly successful of all the winter-sports teams. The gymnasts climaxed a winning season with an outstanding performance in the state finals at Prospect. The "big story" of the year, of course, was team captain Bruce Bolnick. Scoring the second-highest number of points in the state meet, he captured the state side-horse championship, second place on parallel bars, and fourth in all-around performance. Junior Ed Raymond placed fifth on side-horse in the finals, and also fifth in all-around.

These athletes and the other West gymnasts captured third place in the state meet. This honor, added to the team's 13-5 conference record, meant a memorable season for the squad. Much of this success was due to the dedicated coaching of Mr. Burkel and Mr. Armour.

Will they think of us not as seniors,
As student leaders or athletes or followers,

Or will they, through the lens of time,
See nothing new in our colors, nothing valuable,

Tripicchio,

DEAR BARB,

WE'VE MADE IT!!

HOMEROOM HAS REALLY BEEN (1ST WITH MR. CARRELL + THEN MR. WINTER HALTER)

I MUST COMPLIMENT YOU ON THE FINE JOB YOU DID THIS ~~DAY~~ YEAR ON THE BULLETIN BOARD (I STILL HAVE THOSE ROTTEN GRADUATION NOTICES IN MY LOCKER)! WE MADE A GREAT TEAM IN GOLF THIS YEAR TOO. LAKE MANNOS WILL NEVER BE THE SAME, BUT THAT'S THE WAY THE COOKIES CRUMBLE. WELL, BE GOOD + DON'T GET INTO ANY TROUBLE (I KNOW ABOUT AUGUSTANA?!!) BEST OF LUCK IN THE FUTURE

LINDA *
* the "GREAT"
ANDERSON

Dear Barb,
Another school year has ended, but this one is special because we graduate. It's great, isn't it. Algebra has been hard at times, but I still enjoyed the class. I'm glad I met you & I hope we can keep in touch with each other. Good luck in college (don't get drunk too often).
Love, Nancy

Dear Barb,
Thanks for Aud. I'll never forget you for it. Stay a great kid

Acknowledgment

Perhaps only a person directly involved in the creation of a yearbook can appreciate the time and effort required for such a project. Countless people, known and unknown, have contributed to its production. Among these, those to be singled out for special thanks must include first the Spectrum sponsors, Mr. William Geismann and Mr. John Fanselow, who took care of the technical and not-so-technical work of advising. of advising.

Also to be thanked are the Norman King Company, publishers, and Root Studios, who did the photography. In addition, the cooperation of the faculty and administration has been sincerely appreciated.

The biggest debt of all, of course, is that owed to this year's Spectrum staff. The contributions of the numerous assistant editors and copywriters can never be measured. Special thanks also goes to the typists--Lee Adami, Debbie Cohen, Millie Cooper, Sandy Hepburn, Judi Parker, Bonnie Tash, and Gail Wolf--who were always willing to work when we needed them. A final mention must be given to basiness manager Diane Rosga; Rick Steele, who designed the cover; and the section editors, who did most of the actual work: Susan Gilbert, senior section; Meredith Lenell and Ila Krause, activities; Joan Glassberg, faculty; Leo Hoch, sports; Pam Bolotin, literary; Rona Immergluck, academic; Cathy Bach and Betty Frazin, special events; JoAnne Netzky, underclassmen; and Sue Boime and Janice Graham, index.

Working on the Spectrum has been a rewarding experience for all of us. We can only hope that the book itself will be as rewarding to those who read it.

Respectfully,
Lynne Graham

THE KING AND I

The auditorium was stilled and waiting. Slowly the curtain opened, and with it, Niles West's production of "King and I," the colorful and dramatic tale of Anna and the King of Siam, presented April 9th and 10th. The production was brilliant, as were the two casts. Friday evening saw Michele Kirshman and Mike Rudowicz as Anna and King. Saturday evening, Bonnie Muth and Steve Wishnoff. As Lady Thiang so aptly sang, it was truly "Something Wonderful."

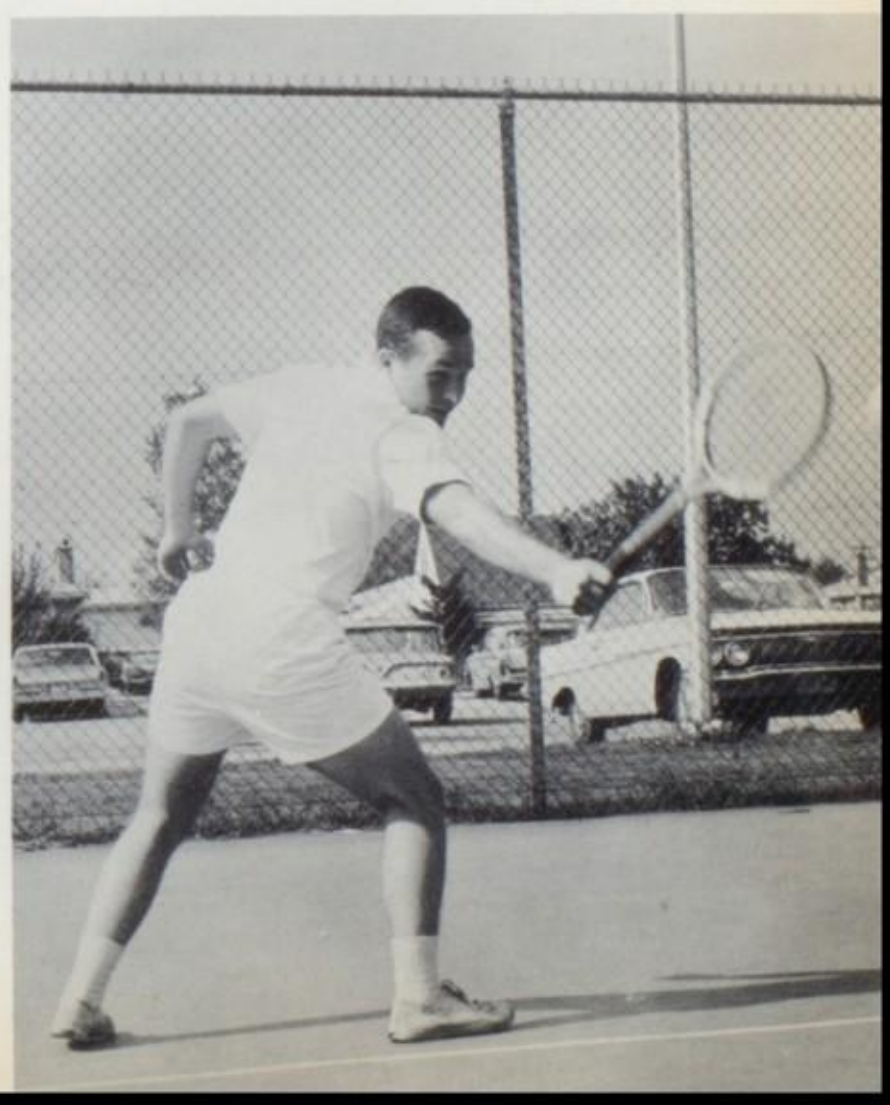
FROSH SOPH

The 1965 edition of the Frosh-Soph tennis team posted an overall record of 13 victories against 7 defeats. After losing the first two league starts, the squad roared on to win five consecutive meets to capture 3rd place in the league. Outstanding performances were turned in by captain and first singles man, Dave Levine, Fred Holtzman at second singles, and freshman Joe Gold at third singles. Other key players were Jim Bode and Bob Gordon, who scored many victories at first doubles, and Jan Derdiger and Dave Gervais, the aggressive second doubles team. A promising group of freshmen who are rounding into fine prospects, make Coach Dan Hill optimistic about challenging for next season's league crown.



P. J. makes it 40-Love.

The Niles West varsity tennis team finished the 1965 season in 6th place in the Des Plaines Valley League. However, only three points separated the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth place teams.

The team compiled a 3-4 won-lost record in league dual meet competition and finished with a 12-8 overall record for the season. The record in individual match competition was 61 wins against 46 losses, for a fine winning percentage of .570.

There was one outstanding individual performance by Dave Heilbron who won the conference championship at the third singles position. Dave, a junior, earned the team's 5th place points in chalking up three consecutive wins to take the gold medal at his position. His victories in the semi-final rounds were upset victories over opponents who had previously defeated him. Heilbron's performance has been recommended for recognition on the Niles West Wall of Fame.

The best of West. The State qualifying mile relay team of C. Brodin, N. Evans, P. Gaynon, D. Riecherts.

The varsity track team coached by Roy Campbell was kept out of the win column by the members of a strong Des Plaines Valley League. With only two lettermen returning and a large lack of depth combined with a general lack of interest shown by the student body proved to be too much of a handicap for the Indians to overcome. The mile relay team composed of Neil Evans, Chris Brodin, Dave Reicherts and Paul Gaynon qualified for the state track meet in a Niles West record time of 3:31.8.

A double victory over Niles East and North in a triangular meet and 65-62 victory over second place Palatine highlighted a Sophomore track season. The Freshmen squad set 14 Niles West records on the way to posting a 2-1 record.

BASEBALL

Injuries to key players on Coach Jim Phipp's varsity baseball team kept it from the Des Plaines Valley Championship and its fourth straight first place finish. Despite the injuries, the team led by all-conference stars, Lloyd Gussis, Bob Levin, Rick Kreiter, John Timmer, and Mike Klein, put up a determined struggle only to lose the championship on a balk in a 6-5 loss to Proviso West. A fine season record of 13-6 was made possible by such players as versatile Lloyd Gussis who at the plate batted .389 and on the mound won 7 games, more than half of the Indian's victories. For his efforts Gussis received the Most Valuable Player Award.

With healthy Greg Zera and Arnie Stein returning next year along with juniors Mike Klein, Bob Neilson, Dan Hirschtick, Jerry Cowan added with good prospects from the J.V. and Sophomore teams. Coach Phipps is more than optimistic about winning Niles West's fourth league baseball championship and taking a trip to Peoria.

John Boor, pitching for the J.V. team, pitched a no-hitter striking out 14 but lost the game 4-0 on 4 unearned runs. This performance was characteristic of an unlucky season where the team dropped six out of nine contests.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Terry Weiss who batted an unbelievable .478 and Bill Madden who won five of six decisions with an ERA of 1.51. Other Sophs who will figure big in Niles West baseball are John Nattan, Jim Morten and Steve Jennetten.

Frosh A and B teams also continued in the winning Niles West tradition by posting records of 7-8 and 7-4-1.

GOLF

Niles West golf team began its fourth year as contender for the league championship with only one returning letterman. In the past three years the Indians had compiled a record unequaled in tournament play. This year, with only one letterman returning, Coach Fabri did not have much hope for a successful season, but the varsity candidates moving up from a successful sophomore squad were determined that the tradition established by the previous golf squads would be up-held in the highest degree. They succeeded by winning the Des Plaines Valley Golf Championship.

Coach Mike Basrak's Frosh-Soph Golf team finished the season in second place in the Des Plaines League with a fine winning record of 5 wins and 2 losses in league play and an overall record of 8-3. An outstanding score of 346 was good enough to win the conference meet championship. Award winners Marc Shapiro, Steve Berkowitz, Ralph Ermilo, Jim Carter, who made this successful season possible, are looking forward to plenty of action on the varsity squad next year.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Scarlet and gold were the predominant colors. Scarlet for the traditional rose each member of the Honor Society received; gold for their brightly shining candles and the gold pins given to them.

This solemn ceremony was held on May 6, 1965, when twenty juniors and fifty-two seniors were honored by being admitted to the Niles West Chapter of the National Honor Society.

Dr. Parker addresses student body at Awards Assembly.

Members of the senior class look on as their classmates receive awards.

ACADEMIC AWARDS

Scholastic achievement this year has been highlighted by the Senior Awards Assembly, It's Academic and the school Awards Assembly.

In this year's Awards Assembly, 357 students received gold, silver and bronze keys, and white and scarlet certificates. Twelve departmental awards were given and one student received a National Merit Scholarship.

This year's It's Academic trio earned Niles West a $25 bond in their television debut and final appearance.

At the senior class assembly many scholarships were given and many students received well deserved recognition. They were also entertained by three student acts.

TO SUMMER

The reigning King and Queen- Bonnie Muth and John Timmer.

The Palmer House was the scene of the first "out of school" prom for Niles West. In the Red Lacquer Room, May 28, 1965, the lights dimmed as 300 couples danced to the enchanting music of Norm Krone. The coronation, followed by a Royal dance, ended the evening of delight and fantasy.

Court members- Mark Harris and Jill Kurti.

Court members- Rick Steele and Janice Rush.

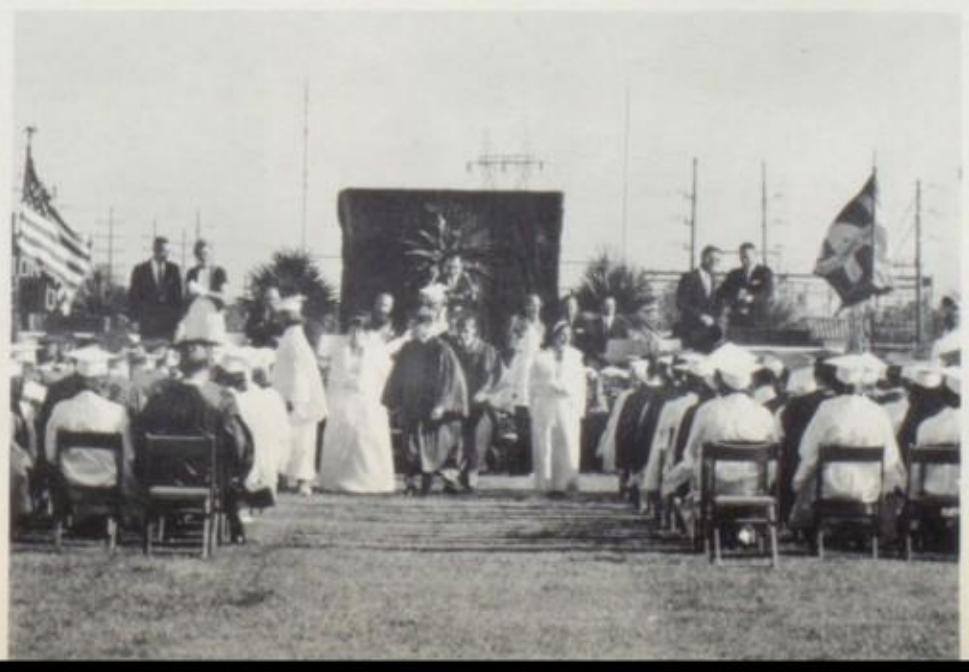
GRADUATION

The class of '65 was the first four year class to graduate from Niles West. On June 13, 1965, the magnificent outdoor commencement took place. Not even the chilly wind could take away the solemnity and beauty of the occasion. On this day the class of '65 gathered for the last time as a whole and for the first time as individuals pursuing different paths.

Valedictorian- Nancy Karch.



Salutatorian- Marcia Kurlan

SENIOR BRUNCH

This year's senior class gathered the day before graduation for the annual Senior Brunch, the Senior Awards Assembly, entertainment by their own class members, and graduation rehearsal. At the Brunch, the Seniors received a final copy of the West Word, dedicated to the class of 1965.

Final issues of West Word are avidly read by seniors.

Dear Barb
Its been great knowing you these years - I wish you the best of luck always. Stay out of trouble and mind those grades. HA!!! Really you are a fine person keep it up.

Dear Barb,
Well, after Krunk this year has certainly been an improvement!
Have a good year at
" and try and behave
yourself will you!
Love,
Carol Krunz

Dear Barb,
It has been fun
having you in my gym class. Especially playing golf. Best of luck in the future. Have a nice summer.
Best wishes
